Saturday Evening, Feb'y 2, 1861.

Official Paper of the City.

The Debate in the Legislature on the Virginia Resolutions.

There was an animated debate in both houses of our legislature, on Thursday, on the proposition to appoint commissioners to the Washington convention, upon the invitation of the state of Virginia.

In the Senate, Mr. Bartlett presented a minority report against the appointment of commissioners. It takes ground against the "basis" offered by Virginia, that of affording, by new constitutional amendments, adequate guarantees for the security of the rights of the slave holding states. If Virginia had requested a conference without putting forth a programme, her request might have been acceded to. The committee declare that Wisconsin is not willing to make any further concessions or guarantees in favor of slavery, and the expending of money in a commission which would be without any good result.

Mr. Hutchinson offered an amendment that Timothy O. Howe, Cadwallader C. Washburn, Edward G. Ryan, Carl Schurz and Joseph A. Sleeper be and hereby are appointed commissioners on the part of the state of Wisconsin. He made a speech of considerable length and ability in favor of sending commissioners.

Mr. Bartlett replied, contending that the only way the Union could be saved was by the republican party adhering to its principles.

Mr. Virgin moved to amend Senator

Hutchinson's substitute by adding "and that commissioners are hereby instructed that they shall not in any event agree to any amendment to the constitution extending the area of slavery in the United States or territories."

Mr. Gill made an excellent speech enduring the report of Mr. Bartlett.

Messrs. Crane, Bean, Worthington and Hazleton, opposed the appointment of commissioners and Messrs. A. J. Bennett, Joiner and Cole made short speeches in favor of it.

The name of J. H. Tweedy was substituted for that of Mr. Washburn, and H. L. Palmer in the place of E. G. Ryan.

On the passage of the resolution as amended by Sen. Hutchinson, the vote was a tie, but the Lieutenant Governor voting "aye," the resolution was adopted.

The following is the vote:

Ayes—A. I. Bennett, Cole, Cushing, Decker, Egert, Ferguson, Hutchinson, John, King, Maxon, Quentin, Sweat, Sweet and Virgin—14.

Nays—Bartlett, Bean, Geo. Bennett, Carry, Cox, Crane, Foot, Gill, Hazleton, Kelsey, Montgomery, Stewart, Utley and Worthington—14.

The Senate then adjourned.

In the Assembly, Mr. Spooner, from the committee on federal relations, reported that a majority of the committee were of opinion that it would be inexpedient to appoint commissioners in accordance with the resolutions of Virginia. The report denounced the amendments to the constitution proposed by Virginia as encouraging filibustering, and as propositions to which the free states could never consent. Resolutions in accordance with the views of the majority were presented.

Mr. Abert offered a minority report favorable to the appointment of commissioners.

A motion was made to postpone the consideration of the subject till the next day, but was defeated by a vote of 35 to 40.

Mr. Atwood offered a substitute for the resolutions of the majority that — number of commissioners be appointed, &c.

Mr. Graham moved to fill the blank with the names of J. R. Doolittle, Chas. Durkee, John F. Potter, C. C. Washburn and Chas. Larabee (all members of congress).

Messrs. Atwood, Messmore and D. H. Johnson opposed the motion of Mr. Graham, and Messrs. Bailey and Spooner favored it.

The amendment, (to insert the names of the members of congress) was as follows:

Ayes—Bailey, Bradford, Campbell, Carey, Chandler, Clark, Cottrell, Frank, Frisby, Gilbert, Graham, Hammond, Hazen, C. R. Johnson, Kirkpatrick, Knapp, Lapham, Linsley, Long, Newton, Northrop, Palmer, Pickett, Pope, Pullen, Robbins, Ruege, Spooner, Smith, Warner, White, Willard, Yonmanns, Mr. Speaker—34.

Nays—Atwood, Bear, Bettis, Bly, Bonney, Buck, Caverne, Chapman, Combs, Constock, Cone, Dies, Dwyer, Ellis, Emery, Evers, Finley, Flint, Fobes, Garrison, S. W. Graves, L. R. Graves, Hall, Hovey, Hovey, D. H. Johnson, Lain, Mackay, Massay, Messmore, Minor, O'Malley, O'Neil, Parker, Petrie, Pfaff, Prentiss, Ramsey, Reed, Riordan, Sawyer, Schatzel, Stevenson, Temple, Williams, Whittaker—17.

Democrats in italics,

Mr. Atwood's proposed amendment to appoint five commissioners was adopted; ayes 42, nays 33.

The amendment to elect by joint convention was then adopted; ayes 52, nays 31.

Mr. Ruege proposed a further amendment, to instruct the commissioners to submit no compromise different to the constitution of the United States, the constitution of Wisconsin, and the Chicago platform.

Messrs. Atwood, Messmore, Webb and D. H. Johnson spoke in favor of sending commissioners without instructions, and Messrs. Ruege, Frisby, Graham, C. R. Johnson and Knapp opposed the proposition.

Mr. Messmore during his speech exclaimed:—"Talk about the Chicago platform! To talk of any political platform in revolutionary times is simply ridiculous!" (Applause which was speedily suppressed and a single hiss.)

Mr. Spooner said, probably alluding to the applause—"Good for the democracy." It is evident from the proceedings in both houses that there is a class of republicans in our legislature in favor of concession to the south, as a basis of settlement, and another class irreconcilably opposed to it.

We cannot see the propriety of sending commissioners for a settlement of differences, unless we propose to concede something, and the legislature itself has declared against that by the adoption of the resolution sustaining Mr. Washburn.

The CONTESTED SEAT SETTLED.—After quite a struggle in the house this morning, a resolution was adopted declaring Wm. F. Mitchell entitled to the seat occupied by C. W. Humphrey, as the member from the second assembly district of Sheboygan Co.

CONDENSED FROM THE MADISON PAPERS.

WISCONSIN LEGISLATURE.

MAIDYSE, Feb. 1.

In the SENATE, a bill was introduced by Sen. Worthington, creating a board of bank commissioners.

The bill for the extension of the state capital came up on its passage, and on motion of Sen. Sweat, was recommended for further correction.

In the ASSEMBLY, Mr. Hicks introduced a resolution instructing the committee on state affairs to report on the expediency of an appropriation for the destitute citizens of Kansas.

Bills introduced.—By Mr. Caverne, to amend chapter 160 of the general laws of 1859, relating to interest.

By Mr. Keogh, for the relief of persons whose lands are sold for non-payment of taxes.

Mr. Graham—What is the question before the house?

The Speaker—The amendment of the gentleman from Milwaukee (Mr. Ruege) to substitute for the resolutions reported by the committee on federal relations.

Mr. Graham indicated a debate on the subject.

The Speaker—Under the rule prohibiting debate on Friday and Saturday, it will have to be postponed.

Mr. Atwood—Was it not the understanding when we adjourned last evening, that the subject should be resumed this morning where we left off, and that the rule prohibiting debate should be suspended?

Mr. Spooner—I suggested that we should adjourn with that understanding, but did not make it in the form of a motion. The gentlemen from Rock (Mr. Graham) who made the motion to adjourn, did not include the understanding in his motion.

Mr. Graham insisted on enforcing the rule prohibiting debate, saying that he presumed he should be allowed to have the subject come up to-morrow.

Mr. Reed moved to suspend the rule.

Mr. Graham moved to table the subject, which prevailed.

The senate resolutions appointing five commissioners to the conference of states at Washington on the 4th inst., was reported to the committee on federal relations.

Mr. Graham moved to refer the resolutions to the committee on federal relations.

The Speaker—Then it goes over till Monday.

Mr. Keogh—I move to lay the motion on the table.

Mr. Keogh called for the ayes and nays, when the motion prevailed by a vote of 48 to 45.

WHO WERE THE MULLETS?—The Madison Argus makes an unjustifiable and inexcusable attack upon Mr. Graham of this city, for insisting upon the rule that no subject shall be considered on Fridays and Saturdays, when debate is indicated, the point of order being raised upon the consideration of the resolution appointing commissioners to the Washington Union Saving Convention. The basis of the attack is that there was an express understanding when the assembly adjourned that the rules prohibiting debate were to be suspended the next day. Mr. Spooner may have had that understanding, but he says "Mr. Graham did not include it in his motion to adjourn." There is no evidence produced that he had any such understanding. This being the case, and Mr. G. being an opponent of the measure, had the right to prevent the consideration of it on Friday and Saturday—he desired delay to strengthen his position and defeat the resolution—this was legitimate, proper and right. If the other side had been smart—or to use an elegant phrase of the Argus—if they had not been "mullets," they would have insisted on taking the question on the resolutions on Thursday afternoon; but they let it go over by default, and suffered, next day, the consequences of their neglect. Who were the mullets in the transaction?

A resolution offered in the Louisiana convention, instructing delegates to Montgomery to resist any attempt to reopen the African slave trade, was tabled—28 to 28.

Three thousand "minute men" are enrolled in Baltimore, who drill nightly, swearing fidelity to the Union. Two commands of troops at Baltimore yesterday for Fort McHenry.

The garrison of Fort Monroe is now 300. It will be strengthened in a few days by 200 more from Governor's Island.

The United States brig Dolphin is receiving armament at the navy yard Norfolk, Va. She is said to be moored off the United States magazine.

The announcement of the Springfield Journal that Mr. Lincoln is opposed to any measures of compromise, is regarded in Washington as official, and it is authoritatively said there that Mr. Lincoln will give no intimation of his future policy until after his inauguration.

Gov. Chase is among the commissioners from Ohio to the Washington convention. They will be instructed to procure an adjournment to April 3rd.

The Missouri house has passed a resolution appointing Waldo R. Johnson, Judge Hough, Col. Doniphan, Judge Beckner, and John D. Coalter, commissioners to the Washington convention.—Chief Justice

The Savannah Republican of Friday corrects the general impression that Ex-Secretary Cobb is a member of the Georgia convention. It states that he was not a candidate for the convention, the county in which he resides (Clarke) being there represented in part by his brother, Thomas R. E. Cobb, Esq.

SUPREME COURT.—The 12th case in the calendar of the first circuit was taken up this (Saturday) morning.

The Indiana news says that "within a little more than three months, our state has had four governors. Gov. Willard's death made way for Lieut. Governor Hammond, who was ordered out by the people to make room for Gov. Lane, who was elected to the seat by a concurrent vote of the two houses of the legislature, and thus placed in the chair of state Lieut. Governor Morton."

Such an occurrence as four governors legally and constitutionally entering and leaving their office within three months, was never before known in this country, we believe.

CHURCH ROBBERY.—On Friday evening of last week, some miscreants whose infamy is vastly removed in depth below that of common thieves, entered the Catholic church in this city, and rifled it of all they could lay hands on. A heavy communion set was stolen, silver candlesticks and chalice, the priest's vesture, in all amounting in value to over $400. From appearances there must have been two or three engaged in the business. No trace, we believe, has yet been discovered of the scoundrels.—Ottawa Republican.

A WESTERN RAILROAD SNOWED IN.—Information from northern Missouri, states that the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad is completely blocked up with snow, from Brookfield east, and its operations are at a standstill, and have been so for nearly a week. There are seven trains snowed in along the road, all of which are out of fuel. The snow along the route is nearly two feet deep, and badly drifted.

REPORTS OF PROTESTS.—The Philadelphia Daily Record calls attention to the fact, that, by decisions of some of the English courts and of the supreme courts of several of the states, the doctrine has been laid down, that it is the duty of notaries public to present in person, and not by clerk or deputy, such notes as are allowed to go to protest, and that, where this has not been done, the whole proceeding is legally void.

COMMISSIONERS TO WASHINGTON.—Yesterday, when the resolution for the appointment of commissioners came up, Mr. Graham proposed to debate it, and it went over under the rule prohibiting debate Friday and Saturday. It may possibly come up to-day by consent. Its fate is uncertain. Some republicans who have heretofore opposed it may continue or withdraw their opposition. There are several patriots in the state who are willing to take an appointment.

THE CONTESTED SEAT SETTLED.—After quite a struggle in the house this morning, a resolution was adopted declaring Wm. F. Mitchell entitled to the seat occupied by C. W. Humphrey, as the member from the second assembly district of Sheboygan Co.

Poetry.

The world is full of poetry—the air is living with its spirit; and the waves

Dance in its brightness. Earth is veiled

And mantled with its beauty; and the walls,

That close in the universe with crystal in,

Are eloquent with voices, that proclaim

The unseen glories of the earth; the forms

In harmonies, too perfect, and too high,

For ought but being of celestial mould,

And speak to man, in one eternal hymn,

Uniting beauty and awaking power.

The year is round in melody, and

Blends the grand, the beautiful, the gay,

The mournful, and the tender, in one strain,

Which bears the load, like a ship, that rises

From the ocean resting after storms;

Or tones, that wind around the vaulted roof,

And pointed pines, and rocks, and falls,

Or music, that comes from the heart,

With pure and gentle musings, that blend

With the soul, and stir the heart,

Communing with the melody, a born

Talent, and a voice, that can sing,

Upon the plains and fields of words, that move

In measured time, and musical array,

The not the union of returning sounds,

Nor all the pleasing art of rhyme,

And quantity, and accent, and stress,

That come to the ear, and are lost,

Or blend with the moving of the soul.

This is a mysterious feeling, which combines

Man with the world, and makes him

One with the sun, and moon, and stars,

With all existence, and with the earth,

With all life, and all thought, and with Humanity, and with the world.

It is a noiseless babbler, who displays

TREASON! TREASON!—A programme of the proceedings to be initiated at Washington for the next few weeks:

A convention of delegates from the slave states on the 4th inst., for the declared purpose of saving the Union, but with secret designs of clandestinely getting possession of the public buildings, and ejecting the officers who do not favor the great southern confederacy.

The abdication of James 1st in favor of Breckinridge, who is body and soul with the traitors, who will discharge all the heads of departments and other officers who oppose their treasonable purposes, order the forts to be given up to the state mobs, and finally order Gen. Scott to withdraw from Washington with all his forces, thus opening a way to prevent the inauguration of Mr. Lincoln on the 4th of March.

Is not the programme as mild a course as could be expected from traitors?

The remedy is, to impeach both James and John, and elect a president of the senate who would be acting president until the 4th of March.

GRAFTON.

An elegant steel engraving of Falstaff mustering his recruits, can be seen at Tallman & Collins' drug store; it is well worth looking at, being taken from Shakespeare's play of Henry IV, Act III. When framed it makes an excellent ornament for the parlor or library. Every one should see it.

WASHINGTON ENGINE CO. NO. 3.—The regular monthly meeting of this company will be held at their hall on Monday evening, February 4th, at 7 o'clock. Every member is requested to attend.

WATERING STOCK IN WINTER.—A foreign writer makes the following remarks on watering stock in winter:

Farmers know well that water is diminished in quantity in grass when the sun has departed, and there is an absence of heat and light, and most people know the evil result when animals consume green food with the hoar frost upon it, or when very wet from rains. Nature has indicated that we should make hay while the sun shines, as a provision for winter, and that the grass having lost 65 per cent. of water by drying, we must make up for the deficiency by providing our animals with drink. Nature has taught them the proper quantities to take, and a wise farmer would in cold weather take care that the temperature of the water should be warm, and thus our live stock would fatten with a smaller quantity of food. Farm or other horses would much less often die from gripes and inflammation, if when they came in heated from their work they were allowed to drink warm water instead of being walked into a horse-pond, or allowed to drink water many degrees below the temperature of the stomach. Our London brewers understand this. A small steam-pipe passes through their water-tanks, keeping the water always at proper warmth. The horses drink when they please without risk of injury. Bullocks ought to be treated in the same way.

Snowballing in the Tuilleries, in Paris, was carried on to such an extent on Christ-mas day, that it became necessary to send for troops to protect the public. A parcel of young scamps systematically assailed every well-dressed person, particularly ladies who wore bonnets worth spoiling. One young man, supposed to be an Englishman, used his cane in self-defence, and a regular row was the consequence. Many bear-skin caps, belonging to the grenadier guards, were seen rolling about in the snow. The troops were unarmed and could do little, but ultimately a body of sergeants of cavalry cleared the gardens and arrested several of the snow-balls.

A SHRED FROM THE SIDEWALK.—The Rag-Picker can hardly be classed among self-sporting individuals, inasmuch as he lives, almost exclusively, upon the rents of others.

A POOR PIECE OF FURNITURE.—The great difficulty with the bureau of Indian Affairs, was that it had too many drawers in it!

Three young men were recently tried in Lampliere, Wis., for shooting at and fatally wounding a dog, and the jury gave the following written verdict:

"All three guilty, plaintiff's damages assessed at a sixpence, and each of the defendants to have another shot at the dog."

Where is Lampliere?

OCYAN TO COOL THEM OFF.—Snow fell one night last week to the depth of six inches in Western Alabama and Eastern Mississipi.

GOOD NEWS FOR ABOLITIONISTS.—The bonds of the Indian have fallen—Vanity Fair.
